NEWARK, Del.-- Aquantuo, a logistics startup, introduces new low Air Freight rates which compete with global logistic companies. Shoppers in USA and Canada can ship any item for $11 per Kg and $5 per 1lb to Ghana or Kenya.

“Aquantuo started to bridge the gap that exists between Africa and the rest of the world without hassles, so having East African colleagues helped Aquantuo understand the necessity for affordable, low-cost transportation rates for Ghana shoppers.”

Since 2020, Aquantuo accumulated over 7,700 users in Ghana and over 16,800 globally. Now, when customers ship with Aquantuo, they will receive a fast, reliable, and affordable service with a tax-free shipping address— online and on Aquantuo mobile. Aquantuo's dedication to low-cost international shipping provides consumers with:

- Unparalleled excellence in customer experience and prompt delivery
- The opportunity to showcase rare and often overlooked resources to the world
- Shipping coverage on land, at sea, and in the air through our unique system of partners, agents, and network

“Aquantuo started to bridge the gap that exists between Africa and the rest of the world without hassles, so having East African colleagues helped Aquantuo understand the necessity for affordable, low-cost transportation rates for Ghana shoppers,” said Irene Owusu-Donkor, director of global operations in the United States. “Aquantuo's core values of compassion, integrity, and excellence delivered over 8,000 items, and its actionable, prompt customer service allowed Aquantuo to adept to its users' needs, which built trust while attracting new audiences.”
